THE CARE OF THE INSANE.

Before erecting any costly asylum, might it not be well for the Nevada Commissioners for the Insane to make some study of the new methods of ministering to the minds diseased? There is too much of a tendency among official boards and public officers to adhere to old plans and systems in relation to such public institutions.

The Democrat and Chronicle thus describes the new way of treating the insane now practiced in Scotland:

"The Scotch asylums are the most perfect. They are rows of cottages instead of great stone prisons. All forms of restraint are totally abolished. The inmates are employed and amused as if they were rational beings, and in visiting them it is hard to realize that one is in an insane asylum. No windows are barred or doors locked. Patients are free from all visible restraint, but are watched closely by attendants, and only few escapes are reported. The results of such a system are so encouraging that it is difficult to see why it is not introduced into this country."

This method above described certainly seems far more humane than the old one of shutting lunatics up in a building like a prison. Confinement in an ordinary insane asylum would make many sane persons go crazy. If Nevada must have an asylum, let us see that it is planned upon the most advanced system of treatment for the patients. The mind of every imaginative person instinctively revolts at the notion of imprisonment in the ordinary asylum. Close confinement may be necessary for dangerous lunatics. It certainly is not for the harmless demented. It seems a cruelty to shut them up in a living tomb, as we do a criminal.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is said that some Democrats here still refuse to pay their bets on New York. The official count published yesterday, gives the State to Garfield by a plurality of 21,033. This leaves no excuse for the nonpayment of bets. The talk about fraud in the election and of throwing out New York is all humbug, and is ridiculed by all the leading Democratic newspapers. Pay your bets, gentlemen.

The Ward Reflex says: "Should Garfield nominate J. P. Jones he would nominate an overrated man—one of those 'happy go lucky' sort of fellows. Should lightning strike Nevada and Mr. Jones be called to the Cabinet, he will have to mend his ways if he expects to make a showing worthy of a financier. Of late Mr. Jones has made quite as good a Senator as Sharon. To neglect the duties of Secretary of the Treasury as he has that of Senator would never do."

Seventy thousand pounds of trout were caught in Pyramid Lake last month, according to the Chronicle. The Fish Commissioner should look into this. They certainly were not caught with a hook and line.—Appeal.

The Indians at the reservation are not confined to hook and line. They use any weapon or noose they choose.

Johnny Cork, five years old, was frozen to death at Long Branch yesterday. His mother, if he left one, will find it very hard to be thankful to-morrow.

The Paradise Reporter has suspended publication. What does Paradise need of a paper, anyhow?

Honest Elections.

The Candelaria True Fiance goes in for honest elections. In commenting on the English system of voting by ballot, recently outlined in the Gazette, it says:

"To this plan, objection has been made that it is too troublesome. Nothing is too troublesome where the rights of the people are at stake. If this matter of secret ballot is worth considering at all—and it is universally conceded to be the very seal of the elective franchise—it is worth considering thoroughly. No half-way business will do. We have tried that and it has failed. Let us have a law that will give every man an opportunity to make up his ticket according to his own ideas of right, and wrong, or throw off the hypocritical mask, or are now wearing, and let the co-operation of voters go on openly and above board."

A WICKED WRETCH.

He Shoots at His Wife and Then Tries to Kill Himself.

Winnemucca had a lively sensation on Sunday, which the Silver State describes as follows: "Shortly after 12 o'clock, yesterday, Jacob Ulrich fired a pistol shot at his wife, at her place of business, near the depot. J. B. Gramm, in the absence of an officer, arrested him and told him he must go to jail. Ulrich prevailed upon his captor to go over the sand hills, instead of along the public streets to the Court-house. When they arrived in the Court-house yard, Ulrich asked permission to enter the wood-house for a moment. This was granted him, and while Mr. Gramm went inside to inform the officers, the report of a pistol shot was heard in the rear of the Court-house, and a minute later Jacob Ulrich rushed into the District Attorney's office all covered with blood and bleeding profusely from a wound in his face. He said he entered the wood-shed back of the Court-house, put the muzzle of a pistol in his mouth and pulled the trigger. Dr. Hanson, who was called to attend him, found that the ball passed outward and upward through the left cheek and cut a furrow up the side of his face, between the ear and eye. Domestic troubles are said to be the cause of his attempt at self-destruction. He has also been drinking heavily of late. The wound is not dangerous."

Items From The Truckee "Republika." We learn that John Hanley, of Sacramento, brother-in-law of Hugh Darrah, has fallen here to a snug life for the death of his grandfather.

J. B. Brogan concluded a contract with three gangs of Chinese to cut 100 cords of wood on land adjacent to Prosser Creek. The wood is for the C. P. R. R., and will be delivered next summer.

Doctor Wilson extracted a tooth from the head of a small man on Sunday which tooth measured 1 1/2 inches in length. It was an "eye tooth." The fellow's head, what there is left of it, is doing well.

Bodily Hurt.

William Jones, a miner, had a leg broken, his head cut and his body badly bruised by the fall of a load of rock in a Comstock mine on Monday. His brother John went up from Reno yesterday morning to attend him.

THE BASE RANGE.

How Eureka Looks to a Stranger. Its Location and Enterprises.

A flying visit to a large town like Eureka gives but little opportunity for studying its peculiarities or resources, and to write up a town with two papers like the Sentinel and Leader would be labor thrown away. The place impresses a stranger very favorably, especially if he has obtained the idea that it is more disagreeably located than other Nevada towns. Almost all the drummers' and travellers' stories of Eureka spread the impression that the town lies in a barren canyon, surrounded by hills unusually bleak and forbidding, and that the fumes of lead and arsenic from the Richmond, Eureka and other reduction works, are almost deadly. That vegetation is killed as it is by the copper mines at Spenceville and elsewhere. The truth is the fumes do not effect the air perceptibly and unless the wind blows in just the right direction no one could tell that there were such things as reduction works in the neighborhood.

THE TOWN SITE.

is not unlike that of Bodie. The canon is not more narrow and the hills hardly so high. There is the same barrenness of trees, the same rounding hills of a similar color. At Bodie the eastern hills are covered with hoisting works, dumps tunnels and shafts. At Eureka the mines are three miles away. There is a difference of elevation of about 2000 feet in favor of Eureka, and that gives it a much pleasanter and safer climate. The principal street follows the canyon and has many fine buildings. The Court house is a red brick faced with brown stone, much more pleasing to the eye than the one at Reno. The Sentinel building is a fire-proof brick. On the first hill to the west are steep streets where many fine houses are located. The Eureka Smelting works are on the edge of town nearest the depot, and are a very striking feature of the scene.

THE PROCESS OF SMELTING.

is briefly, to melt the ore in a furnace and let the heavier metals, silver and lead, settle to the bottom where they work out through an inverted siphon and are dipped and run into bars. The iron and dross lie next and are drawn off and thrown away. The rock floats on top and an almost constant stream runs into large fire-proof pots, which, when full, are taken out on little two-wheeled arrangements, exactly suited to the purpose. The pots are wheeled out to the edge of the dump and the fiery liquor poured down the side, making a stream of boiling rock to the bottom. The works run day and night, and in the dark the picture is suggestive. Another odd sight is an enormous pile of lead bars at the Richmond works. Cords of it are ranked up waiting for a better market. It is said that if all the lead lying there was to be thrown on the market the price would be lowered so it would not be worth freight. Ruby Hill is 3 miles off and the ore is run down on a railroad owned by the Eureka and Palisade Company. A good wagon road extends to the mines which support quite a village and an excellent newspaper, the

MINING NEWS.

owned by James E. Anderson. The GAZETTE owes its thanks to Mr. Everts, the Genl. Superintendent of the Eureka & Palisade railroad, who drove its representative to the hill and back and all over the town, giving him much interesting information. It is generally conceded that Eureka is seeing dull times. Money is not as plenty as formerly, and there are many who still suffer from the effects of the fire, still the steady stream of wages flowing from the big mining companies through all branches of business will sustain a large population and there is no reason for discouragement on account of a temporary depression.

Personal.

Irvin Ayers and family will remove to Oakland in a few days.
W. T. C. Elliott, of Bodie, is in town, and looking well.
B. B. Reiding and Auditor Gerald, of the C. P., went west last night.
Mr. Paxton, of the banking house of Paxton, Curtis & Co., is in town.
Bishop Whitaker is expected to arrive from New York on Tuesday evening next.
Major Gardner, of Carson, is in town. He thinks of making Reno his home.
A letter from Wm. Well, formerly of Reno, will be found elsewhere. He will stop in Reno on his way east from Virginia in about two months.
A. Soule, late of Austin, has moved to Reno and will be connected with Paxton, Curtis & Co's. Bank. Mr. Soule will be a valuable addition to Reno, socially as well as in a business sense.
Mrs. I. T. Benham will remove to Spokane Falls, Washington Territory, next month. Gen. Hogerman has bought her house. Miss May accompanies her, and Miss Kate remains in Reno.

TICKET PUNCHERS.

The Excursion Party of Conductors in Reno Last Evening.

The Railroad Conductors' excursion party arrived here at 8:30 last evening on their special train of five Pullman coaches and a baggage car. There were 100 conductors and 48 or 50 ladies in the party. They are from all parts of the United States and Canada, representing an organization known as the Conductors' Mutual Aid and Benefit Society. The society has been in existence six years and has a convention every year. This is the first year that an excursion has been made. The party came straight through from Chicago, and will remain six days in San Francisco. On their return they may visit Virginia City, but that is not certain. Their trip had so far been pleasant and without accident. Their train remained in Reno only long enough for dinner, and then started west on the time of the regular overland, moving as its first section. The second section of the overland arrived about 10:30, with passengers and mail.

A heavy gold watch chain and a big dangling seal are indispensable parts of a conductor's outfit. A conductor may sometimes worry along without a ticket punch but would feel lost without his chain and seal. When the excursion train arrived last night and the passengers alighted, the platform fairly gleamed with seals. They flashed out in the darkness like a swarm of fireflies. It is remarked that the more service a conductor has seen the bigger his seal and chain become. The degree of a conductor's experience can always be told in this way. If one applies to the Superintendent of a road for a place as conductor, the Superintendent never asks the applicant about his experience. He simply looks at his watch chain. If no seal, no experience; a two-inch seal, moderate experience; a three-inch seal and three four-inch chain, long service; and so on.

Just as the excursion train was about to start last night, and while the platform was crowded, a man who was not of the party yelled:

"I say, Conductor."

There were about fifty conductors on the platform. From the force of habit each one answered, and they all sang out in concert:
"Oh dammit! What do you want?"
It was a glorious sight to see those fifty conductors swing themselves aboard as the train was pulling out. They all stood about indifferently, as though they were waiting for the train to start; then each would look away from the cars, and carelessly stretching out an arm, would swing on to the train as if the act were entirely unpremeditated and accomplished with no exertion.
The conductors were a fine looking lot of men. The experienced traveler could make close guesses as to the localities from which each of them hailed. There was one slim hollow-looking, yellow haired fellow that came from Pennsylvania. The old railroad man didn't come from Pennsylvania himself.

Delinquent Taxes.

Auditor Williams gives notice to-day that the delinquent list of taxes has been handed to the District Attorney for collection. Tourmalines On Crystal Peak.

Tourmalines have been found on Crystal Peak mountain, about five miles northwest of Verdi. The tourmaline is a mineral found usually in black three-sided or six-sided prisms. Tourmalines are generally found imbedded in quartz or other rock. Light colored ones are rare and valuable. The stones are highly prized as curiosities.

NEW MEXICO.

The Rush to El Paso—The Country Fast-Filling Up.

MESILLA, N. M., Nov. 13.
Editor Gazette:—I was down at El Paso yesterday. Everything was very lively there. People are flocking in by the thousand in expectation of the new railroads—the A. T. & S. F. R. R., the Southern Pacific and the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio railroad. El Paso will be the connecting point of the three above named roads. The A. T. & S. F. railroad will go on to Guaymas. It is finished now as far as Colorado, 100 miles above El Paso, and it is expected that within 60 days the road will be at El Paso. A lawless element is inhabiting that point at present. If they commit crimes on this side, all they have to do is to go over to the Mexican side and there they are protected. There is a great deal of travel through this country. People are attracted by the mild climate, and at the same time look out for business interests. Mining is going on extensively through the south-western portion of New Mexico. Miners from Colorado are flocking in on account of the failures of the mines there, and the severe weather there in winter. A great many new towns have sprung up all along the line of the railroad. They are all in the order of new mining towns—rough and ready—until the railroad passes them, when part of the population will pack their house furniture and depart for the town ahead.
W. WEIL.

Athletic Exhibition and Hop.

The Athletic Club have decided to give another exhibition, in order to raise funds for the support of the club during the winter and the purchase of additional apparatus, and have fixed the time for one week from this evening, December 2. The programme will consist of an attractive showing of the club work, interspersed with boxing, club-swinging, fencing, tumbling, broadsword exercise, fancy turning, &c., done by the best performers of the Reno Club, with the probable assistance of the leaders of the Virginia Turn-Verein.

The entertainment will be followed by a social hop. Tickets admitting gentlemen will be sold at one dollar each; ladies free. Members of the club who have paid up their dues can obtain admission tickets of the Secretary or President without charge.
Turn out and give the boys a lift.

A Nuisance.

For several weeks past, the Virginia Road, at the junction with the road to the Arlington nurseries, has been flooded with water which appears to come from a ditch either on the premises of M. C. Lake, or adjoining that property. The flow of water across the road has been continuous, and has made several nasty mud holes. A lady could not pass without getting her feet in the mud, and men have been obliged to jump the stream. There is a law to put a stop to flooding the streets with water in that manner, and the offender, whether M. C. Lake or some man not rich, should be fined and made to keep the water off the road. Where is Road Supervisor Harrison?

Wintry White.

The rain which fell yesterday seemed a godsend. The falling drizzle caught all the impurities in the air, and carried them to the earth. Even the mud seemed a pleasant change from the dry dust which had been accumulating in the streets ever since last spring. After sunset the rain changed to snow, and white flakes came down in occasional flurries during the night. This morning all out-of-doors was white. The mountains and the hills were completely covered with snow, and the valley was like a great white sheet. Half an inch of snow lay on the streets, but it rapidly melted, and only its traces remained at noon.

The Ditch Broken.

The cold snap has proven a severe strain on the Highland Ditch, which supplies Reno with water. The banks are new and the frost has heaved them up in many places so that the water escapes. Pete Evans, the superintendent, has been hard at work and last night had the water down to within a mile of the big reservoir, but this morning none has come in and he is out to-day hunting it up. The supply in the big reservoir is about exhausted, and the town will be supplied from the one below the Bishop's Seminary, on the Orr ditch. Meantime every one should be as careful of fire and as saving of water as possible.

Stealing Pest House Blankets.
Some time ago a thief broke into the Virginia City pest house and stole all the blankets, and it is supposed he sold them in Chinatown, where the small-pox started. The Chronicle says that some of the Chinese, among them Mayor Stephens's domestic, assert that there have been cases concealed in Chinatown, and that a Chinese small-pox patient was taken away from a house on B street and put where the doctors could not find him.

BY TELEGRAPH.

The Purport of the New Treaty Unknown.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.
Hay, Assistant Secretary of State, now acting as Secretary during Everts' absence, authorizes a positive and sweeping contradiction of all dispatches purporting to give the general terms of the new Chinese treaty upon the authority of information alleged to have been received by the State Department. He says the State Department has not received any information as to the purport of the treaty, which is said to have been signed, and that although, of course, it may be safely assumed to be in accordance with the Commissioners' instructions. Any other statement purporting to be telegraphed from Washington concerning it is nearly imaginary. Your correspondent is also enabled to say that it is in the highest degree improbable that any such detailed stipulations as those imagined by the San Francisco press could form part of the treaty, for the Commissioners' instructions contemplated only the clearing of the way for legislative action by Congress.

Two Children Burned To Death.

NAPA, Nov. 22.
The house of A. Counts was this afternoon destroyed by fire. The house was occupied by Charles Boehringer, his wife and two children, aged respectively one and three years. Both children were burned to death. Mrs. Boehringer had gone to a neighbor's house and had locked the house containing the children, and it is supposed that they caused the fire by playing with matches. The mother has become insane over the occurrence.

A Suit for $100,000 Damages.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.
A suit for $100,000 damages has been commenced against the Indian Queen mine, Esmeralda county, Nevada, by parties claiming the adjoining ground. It is understood that the mine has gone into Boston hands and will be reorganized there in a day or two, and the stock put on the market.

60,000 Immigrants.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.
Sixty thousand immigrants arrived at the leading ports of the United States during October, always a late month for arrivals. Despite the Irish famine, followed by the Irish land troubles, nearly a thousand more English than Irish immigrants came in October, and three times as many Germans as Irish.

Escaped from Folsom.

SAN FRANCISCO NOV. 24.
On Monday four convicts attempted to break out of the State prison at Folsom by climbing through a skylight of the main building. One, P. Gibson, was shot dead by the guards. The others were recaptured.

REGULATOR OF PRICES.

If you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. We do not boast when we say that we defy competition in prices in anything in our line. Besides this we have only one price. We have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at our establishment. Our stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything we have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on our shelves. We receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of our prices and examine our stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. We make a profit on everything we sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. We particularly call attention to our full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of our specialties. Orders from the country promptly attended to. Look out for the White Building with the Gold Sign.
